Joyful Parenting:

Dear Parents,
Greetings from Esaki Vidyaashram!

Some tips:

1. Find time to spend with your children.
2. Be with them and watch happily their play. If possible play with them.
3. Forget their mistakes and don't keep them as a record in your mind.
4. Don't compare your child with any other children.

Believe that your child is better than your friends' and neighbours' children. He / she has many hidden talents. Watch his / her innate talents in different realms or angles and enjoy yourself.

Thank you all

We will meet in the next issue.

NO MORE TEARS !!

Around the world, we are toys
And are playing thinking nothing
Get broken someday or other.
The world shrinks in the inhuman
Dearth of noble natures.
Be brave, face with all might
Scatter them out of range.
Make the world a seat of peace
Live contentedly for long.

The Trees

Trees are living things
What I am talking about
They are calm and quiet
And helpful to mankind
They give us shadow
And variety of fruits
They stand still and work
To emit out oxygen
They are beautiful and useful
They have to be saved for us
Don't fell it down, be kind
This is what I want to tell you

A TEACHER SHOULD BE A PSYCHOLOGIST

When the teacher entered the classroom carrying the attendance register, she saw Mrudula , a front bench student was sobbing uncontrollably. The teacher felt sad and went near to her. Mrudula bent down her face and sobbed again and again.

'Why are you crying for?"

She didn't answer. Tears rolled down from her eyes. The little girl who learns for standard two couldn't control her feelings . The teacher lifted her up with a motherly love and went out of the classroom. 'Now you tell, what made you cry?' the teacher asked.

"I lost my puppy doll.... I searched everywhere"
"Don't worry Mrudula. I 'll find him out. Go and sit on your bench. Ok". Then the teacher went to the staff room. She thought that the teacher was going to search for her Puppy Doll. She stopped crying. After few minutes the teacher came back without doll. The girl sobbed again.

Then the peon came there with a letter and handed over to the teacher. The teacher read the address.

"Mrudula, you have a letter" She handed over the letter to her. It was a letter written by the Puppy Doll to Mrudula. In which he said that he was in a tour and would be back within a month. Mrudula wiped her tears and smiled.
